OUR STORY

Welcome to The Dutch Barn, our seventy-year-old grain store that we have recently converted on our family farm near Salisbury in Wiltshire. As the 5th generation on the farm we have been working to restore the old and unused buildings, The Dutch Barn being the latest conversion. With Barney doing a large amount of the build by himself, the project really has been a labour of love and no detail has been overlooked. We offer a range of services here including bespoke wedding receptions and ceremonies as well as luxury accommodation just next door in West Barn Lodge. It is a truly one-off venue in a private but easily accessible location and we would love to have you celebrate your special day here with us!
